

Ruth Shor-Jannati, MS, LCSW-C works with adults in individual, couple and group psychotherapy with problems such as depression, anxiety, Bipolar disorder, life changes and transition, addictions, and relationship problems. She has been in practice in the mental health field for the past twenty-nine years and uses her training as a dance/movement therapist to enrich the verbal work she does with clients.